

Mario Arconio

Italian Architect and painter
(c.1575–1635)

Born c. 1575, probably in Rome; died 1635, buried in Rome, in the portico of S Giovanni Laterano. Painter. School of Rome. Worked in Rome around 1600. He studied first painting, then architecture, in which latter discipline he built a considerable reputation. Pope Paul V appointed him to a privileged position at the papal court and Arconio was subsequently made Governor of Cori. He died at the age of 60 years.

Source:

<https://doi.org/10.1093/benz/9780199773787.article.B00006618>