

Leandro Biglioschi

Leandro Biglioschi was one of Canova's three studio assistants mentioned in G.A. Guattani's 'Memorie Enciclopediche' of 1810. An esteemed sculptor, Biglioschi was made Regent of the Virtuosi al Pantheon (the papal honour society of artists) in Rome in 1821. Prior to this honor, Canova himself had commissioned Biglioschi to model four marble busts for the Pantheon which are now in the Capitoline Museum.
