

Mauro Fontana

Italian Architect
(1701-1767)

Architect, son of Francesco Fontana, born in Rome 1701, died in 1767. Performed only a few works, including Monastero and Chiesa di Sant'Orsola in Via Vittoria. Mauro Fontana was a member of the Brotherhood Congregazione del Santissimo Nome di Maria and in the group of architects who were set up when the new Church Santissimo Nome di Maria was to be erected. Here in 1751 he came to stand for the completion of the Church's interior and stabilization of its walls.
