

Bernardino Riccardi

Italian painter
(Parma 1814 - Rome 1854)

Protected by the Duchess Maria Luigia of Habsburg who commissioned numerous works was then in Rome where he established himself as a watercolorist and author of purist intonation costume scenes; he also took part in the decorative cycle in the Basilica of S. Maria sopra Minerva (Prophets, apostles and doctors , on the vault).

Translated from:

<http://www.treccani.it/enciclopedia/bernardino-riccardi/>